

THERESA VAUGHN IN A MADHOUSE.

Noted Singer Developed a Suicidal Mania
Through Profound Melancholia.

THERESA VAUGHN.

BOSTON, April 18.—Her mind shattered, her memory gone and afflicted with suicidal melancholia, Theresa Vaughn, the actress, known in private life as Mrs. Theresa R. Haupt, has been taken to the Worcester Asylum for the insane.

She does not realize her condition. She thinks she is merely suffering from a nervous attack and will soon be well. The doctors hold out little hope of her recovery.

Mrs. Haupt's friends have expected this sad ending of her career for some time. She had to give up her work on the stage eighteen months ago, when she failed to remember her lines and broke down completely. Since then her memory has been growing worse all the time and her efforts sometimes to sing the old songs with which she formerly charmed her audiences, have been very pathetic.

Since her retirement she has lived with her mother, Mrs. Ott, at No. 145 Cherry street, this city.

The death of her husband four years ago, and of her brother, Joseph, in New York a few months ago aided in completely shattering her mind.

No attempt has been made heretofore to restrain her, but recently she has become melancholy and has threatened suicide, and it was deemed best to commit her to an asylum.

Mrs. Haupt's first husband was the late William A. Meyer, who was her favorite singer in light opera. She is now thirty-six years old.

GRANT TO COME HOME.

Gen. Wade Succeeds Gen. Bates in Southern Luzon.

MANILA, April 18.—Brig. Gen. Frederick D. Grant will return to the United States as soon as his affairs can be closed up here and transportation secured. Brig. Gen. Bates and Major Hall will also return.

Brig. Gen. Wade and Ludlow have arrived here. Wade will succeed Bates in command of the Department of Southern Luzon.

GIRL ARTIST DISAPPEARS.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BOSTON, April 18.—Miss Lily Caldwell, twenty years old, an art student in the Grundmann studios, has been missing from her home in Melford since last Monday and her friends fear she has committed suicide during a fit of despondency.

Miss Caldwell came to Boston from Wenham and had a hard struggle to earn a living and keep up her studies. She recently found a home in the family of J. S. Wilkoff, of Melford, who, noting her self-sacrifice for her art, gave her a home free.

HIS LIFE FOR STOLEN RIDE.

Gustav Oshike, seventeen years old, of No. 20 Van Horne street, Jersey City, who was shot in the back while stealing a ride on a Pennsylvania train through the cut under the Baldwin Avenue bridge last night, is in a precarious condition at the City Hospital, Jersey City. The doctors say he will die.

Philip Duffy, the railroad watchman, who was arrested last night was held without bail by Justice Murphy in the Oakland Avenue Police Court today. He denied that he fired the shot.

Martha Tene, nineteen years old, of No. 2 Hudson street, was on the train with Oshike, and Edward Eaton, seventeen years old, of No. 30 Mulberry Avenue, told Police Captain McKaig that they saw Duffy fire the shot. Oshike could not identify Duffy. He said he did not see who shot him.

The bullet entered Oshike's back over the right rib and came out near the right nipple.

The Bargain Friday Sale.

Were we not aware of the fact that thousands upon thousands of people wait for our Bargain Friday Sale week after week, and figure upon the money to be saved here, just as if it was part of their regular income, perhaps we could not do our part as well.

The sense of responsibility that this knowledge adds to our desire to do the very best we can for you in the way of greatest value per dollar of price—cannot fail to always insure to you on Bargain Fridays "better goods for the same money or the same goods for less money than elsewhere."

Half Price for Dress Goods Remnants.

Sales of the past two weeks have left us with a considerable lot of short ends of Dress Goods. They are just as good in style, color and quality as you could buy from the piece, and yet all we ask for them is half price. The lengths run from 2 to 6 yards, and all colors as well as black are contained in the collection. In the great assortment are to be found such popular goods as

Black and Colored Chevots, Albatross, Henriettas, Broadcloths, Prunellas, Tweeds, Veilings, Etc., etc.

A Silk Remnant Sale.

The accumulations of the past two weeks will be offered to-morrow at prices which make them bargains of the first order. The collection consists of Plain and Fancy Taffetas, Foulards, Printed Liberties, Louisines, Wash Silks, etc.; all in good weaves and colorings and in lengths of from 1 to 12 yards. Three lots at three special prices:

CHURCH BLOCKS LOVE AFFAIR.

Members Object to the Union of December and May.

Members of the Tremont Methodist Episcopal Church have taken a hand in the love affair of Mr. J. A. Silva and Miss Josephine Sieber, who are prominent in the congregation. Mr. Silva is a teacher of Spanish. His wife died recently in Madrid. He has a class of instruction attended by thirty children of members of the congregation. Miss Sieber's father is the proprietor of a steam laundry and she works in a millinery store opposite the Sieber home at No. 124 Washington avenue. Her mother died recently. She gave her approval to her daughter's engagement.

The church members were not so complacent and those who objected pursued the parents to stop sending their children to Mr. Silva's class.

The congregation justifies its interference on the ground that the prospective bridegroom is sixty and his bride twenty.

Prof. Silva said to-day that he was not inclined to discuss the action of his fellow church members.

"I am a Christian," he said, "but the conduct of others who share the tenets of my faith have puzzled me sorely by their practical application of them."

THREATEN TO POISON HER.

Pupils Send Warning of Peril to Their Teacher.

CHESTER, Pa., April 18.—With an imaginary grievance against their teacher, Miss Jennie McLaren, five of the younger pupils of the Chester High School composed the following threatening letter and one of their number mailed it to their surprised and shocked instructor:

"Miss Jennie: We are about tired of your newsy mouth and propose to put it out of the way. Beware of poisoning us on Easter Sunday, and we hope you will never see another. Everybody agrees that you mark very unfairly, so mark out words—yours!"

Miss McLaren was not seriously alarmed over her personal safety, but in the interest of good discipline she delivered the letter to the principal of the High school, Prof. Thomas S. Cole, who has begun an investigation.

SWINDLED HIS SWEETHEART.

Girl Wrote Lover to Return and Had Him Arrested.

Charles Hoffman, of No. 2674 Park avenue, was arraigned in the West Side Police Court to-day charged with the larceny of $100 from Miss Josephine Bopp, of No. 219 West Sixty-sixth street.

Miss Bopp said that she was formerly engaged to Mr. Hoffman and that when he called on her in January they discussed their future plans very pleasantly. She showed a check for $100 which she intended to spend in preparations for their wedding.

The lover offered to have the check cashed and carried it away with him. He did not return, and Miss Bopp's efforts to find him were futile until she wrote him a letter brimming over with love.

"Never mind the check," she wrote. "In the language of diplomacy that is a closed incident. I am dying to see you."

Hoffman hastened to Miss Bopp's home, where she entertained him until a policeman reached the house and placed him under arrest.

WHAT

HAS TO SAY ABOUT

Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Mayor Walling, of Orange Park, Fla., voices the sentiment of many thousands of people who have found Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy of incalculable benefit. The record of cures of serious nervous complaints, effected by this grand medicine is rolling steadily higher and higher. Read what Mayor Walling writes:

"I have long been familiar with the fame of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and especially in its results in the case of my friends, many of whom occupy high places of honor and trust. In cases of nervousness from the strain of long sustained mental work, causing sleeplessness and lack of rest, it is excellent. I have used it myself and am now using it, and I most cordially recommend the remedy."—H. H. Walling.

The papers are continually printing letters from people of high position who unanimously praise Dr. Greene's great medicine for troubles of the blood and nerves. These letters are written solely for the benefit of others. Nervous men and women everywhere are being cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura. Why should you not take advantage of their experience and get the help you need from the same source?

Dr. Greene's special advice is always to be had without charge by all who call at his office, 38 West 42nd St., New York City, or who write to him through the mail.
